

SCHOOL DISTRICT LEGAL STATUS

The official and legal name of the school district is “Laramie County School District No. 2,” and official documents are authenticated by the signature of officers of the Board of Trustees and imprint of the seal of the district.

Laramie County School District No. 2 is established and maintained for a complete and uniform system of free public instruction. The district shall be organized into effective administrative units to promote the education, convenience, and welfare of children.

Laramie County School District No. 2 was reorganized as per the 1969 Wyoming School Code as of July 1, 1971. The district was reorganized to include the former school districts of Albin, Burns, Carpenter, Hillsdale and Pine Bluffs.

Adoption Date: December 13, 2004