

Laramie County School District # 2
Fall 2005

Title: Teacher

Qualifications:

1. Wyoming Teacher certification.
2. Basic computer knowledge and skills.

Terms of Employment:

1. Teacher days according to district guidelines.
2. Designated by contract.
3. Certified Salary Schedule.

Reports to: School Principal

Essential Functions: Instructional

1. Seeks to establish a school climate, which will prompt appropriate student discipline. Supports and assists the building staff in maintaining order and appropriate behavior among students.
2. Maintain a respectful environment and open communication with students.
3. Teaches the district prescribed curriculum in the assigned area, utilizes effective planning for each day's/units teaching-learning activities, clarifies goals, objectives, standards and benchmarks of lessons and assignments.
4. Prescribes for student academic and effective strengths and weaknesses, evaluates student progress, achievement and meeting of standards, continually seeks to motivate students for the learning task at hand.
5. Utilizes instructional materials and other education resources in a competent and effective manner. Utilizes a variety of resources to enhance the teaching and learning process.
6. Utilizes accepted principles of learning (transfer, reinforcement, motivation and retention) in an effective manner. Keeps abreast of research findings relative to "learning."
7. Provides for reasonable care and safety of students who are assigned to him/her at any particular time.
8. Knowledgeable and utilizes Differentiated Instruction in all classes with all students
9. Coordinates para responsibilities with SPED Department and accommodates modifications according to student IEP.

Professional

1. Is familiar with and abide by district policies, school expectations, and legal rules/expectations placed on professionals working with children.
2. Seeks a cooperative working relationship with the district staff/personnel. Exercises mature and professional judgment in teaching and professional dealings with others.
3. Demonstrates high standards of professionalism and ethics.
4. Maintains confidentiality of information concerning colleagues, students, and parents.
5. Participates in professional activities, as part of the teaching assignments that enhance the mission of the school/district and the meeting of district standards.
6. Seek continuing education or professional development which aligns to individual/school/district goals.
7. Those new to the district shall be involved in the district mentoring program.
8. Participates in district and/or building committees that enhance the mission of the school district.
9. Perform other duties as assigned by the principal.